

Melvindale-Northern Allen Park Schools

The Board of Education for Melvindale-Northern Allen Park Schools is in search of a new superintendent.

The Melvindale-Northern Allen Park Public School district is located in a suburb of the City of Detroit. According to the United States Census Bureau, the city has a total area of 2.76 square miles and the 2017 population (estimate) of City of Melvindale was 10,322 with 24.7% of the population under the age of 18.

The mission of the Melvindale-Northern Allen Park School District is to provide an educational environment which will challenge and prepare students academically and socially to make a positive impact on the future. We are dedicated to continuously improving the quality of education through a cooperative effort of all stakeholders: the Board of Education, school personnel, students, their families, and members of our community. Our district provides a learning community focusing on hands on academics, integrating the use of technology-enriched learning which will enable students to achieve marketable skills.
