

ADDISON COMMUNITY SCHOOLS – SUPERINTENDENT POSTING

The Addison Community Schools Board of Education is seeking a Superintendent to begin work July 1, 2022. The Board is being assisted in the search by Michigan Association of School Boards (MASB) with Rodney Green, Ph.D. as the consultant.

The Addison Community School district is located in Lenawee, Hillsdale and Jackson Counties. It is 80 square miles of beautiful Lake Country in southern Michigan. The Addison Community Schools campus consists of a high school, a middle school, and an elementary school. The District serves 729 students with a budget of $9.4 million. The vision of Addison Community Schools is to prepare confident students in making positive contributions to the global society and the community in which they live.

The Addison Board of Education seeks a superintendent who is knowledgeable in K-12 education, is a strong leader, and will be an effective communicator with staff and community. The new superintendent should be an experienced administrator, friendly, honest, and will actively work with the Board and community to set and reach goals.
