

The Mason Public Schools Board of Education is seeking a superintendent to succeed Ronald Drzewicki, who is retiring after eight years of distinguished service to the District.

Mason is located just south of Lansing, Michigan's Capital. It is just minutes from the beautiful campus of Michigan State University, home of the MSU Spartans. Many of the community's residents are professionally employed by MSU, Lansing Community College, Michigan State Government, General Motors, Sparrow Health Systems and area public schools.

With over 3,200 students, the Mason Public Schools employs 575 instructors and support staff who collectively provide a positive and nurturing environment for a unique learning experience. The District's annual budget is $42 million. Mason Public Schools' points of pride include:

- A National Blue Ribbon School, Alaiedon Elementary
- Strong community support, as evidenced by the Mason Public Schools Foundation, a $69.7 million Bond, and robust participation in academic, athletic, and fine arts programming.
- Mason Promise Scholarship
- Lansing Community College Youth Program and MSU Gifted and Talented Programs
- Formed a Diversity Committee to create a climate and culture reflective of values related to diversity, equity and inclusion.
- Summer Level Up! Learning Program
- State of the Art Robotics Facility
- Award-winning Tennis Court Facility
