GAYLORD COMMUNITY SCHOOLS

The Gaylord Community Schools Board of Education is seeking a dynamic educational leader to become their next Superintendent of Schools. The current superintendent is retiring after 32 successful years with the district. The Board and superintendent have worked as an effective team to create a culture of accomplishment for students and the community that they wish to continue.

Gaylord Community Schools educates nearly 3,000 students in five buildings: North Ohio Elementary School (K-3), South Maple Elementary School (K-3), Gaylord Intermediate School (4-6), Gaylord Middle School (7-8) and Gaylord High School (9-12). The district has been regularly recognized as high achieving by the Center for Michigan. Gaylord High School has also been repeatedly recognized by U.S. News and World Report as one of the best high schools in the nation earning a silver medal in 2015.
