

Croswell-Lexington Community Schools – Posting

The Crowell-Lexington Community Schools Board of Education is seeking a Superintendent to begin work in approximately September, 2022. The Board is being assisted in the search by Michigan Association of School Boards (MASB).

The Cros-Lex School District is located in Sanilac County, in Michigan’s beautiful Thumb, near Lake Huron. The District serves about 1,938 students and offers a world class education with a rural advantage. The mission is “Inspiring Excellence, Every Student, Every Adult, Every Day”. They believe in hard work, collaboration, collegiality, that building relationships will make a difference in the education of students, and that all stakeholders share ownership of the schools. They care and it shows. Pioneers...Blazing a Trail to Excellence.

The Board of Education is seeking a superintendent who is a strong, visionary leader, has an extensive background in K-12 education, and will be an effective communicator with staff and community. This educational leader will actively work with the Board and community to set and reach goals, be an instructional leader, and be an innovative and creative problem solver. The new superintendent should be knowledgeable, ethical, honest, and friendly.
