

PARCHMENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

The Board of Education for the Parchment School District is in search of a new superintendent. The vacancy is created by the departure of Superintendent Jason Misner, who has accepted a similar position in a northern Michigan district.

Parchment School District is located in Parchment Michigan, a city in Kalamazoo County adjacent to Kalamazoo. The community combines the atmosphere of small-town living with the accessibility of metropolitan advantages. The district lies in close proximity to many cultural attractions, fine dining, recreational opportunities and is near Western Michigan University and Kalamazoo College.

Parchment School District is composed of Central Elementary, North Elementary, Northwood Elementary, Parchment Middle School, Parchment High School, and Parchment Innovation Center. The district's current student population is 1,620 students. The mission of Parchment School District is to "Connect, Challenge, and Inspire Every Child to Reach Their Full Potential."

We believe...
