

TECUMSEH PUBLIC SCHOOLS – SUPERINTENDENT POSTING

The Tecumseh Public Schools Board of Education is seeking a Superintendent to begin work July 1, 2024. The Board is being assisted in the search by the Michigan Association of School Boards (MASB) with Rodney Green, Ph.D. as the consultant.

The Tecumseh School district is located in beautiful Lenawee County in southern Michigan. For the 2024-25 academic year, the District will consist of a comprehensive high school grades 9-12, a middle school grades 4-8, and two elementary schools grades young fives to 3rd grade. The District serves about 2560 students with a budget of approximately $36 million. The vision of Tecumseh Public Schools is to inspire students to become empowered innovative individuals. The mission is to empower every student, every day for life success with flexible opportunities in a diverse learning environment.

The Tecumseh Board of Education seeks a superintendent who is knowledgeable in K-12 education, is a strong leader, and will be an effective communicator with staff and community. The new superintendent should be an experienced administrator, friendly, honest, and will actively work with the Board and community to set and reach goals.
