

DeWitt Public Schools

The Board of Education for DeWitt Public Schools is in search of a new superintendent.

DeWitt Public Schools is a highly rated, public school district located in DeWitt, MI, with approximately 3,100 students in K-12. The DeWitt community is located 10 minutes north of Lansing, the State Capital, and 10 minutes northwest of Michigan State University. The traditional, yet growing school district is one of the primary reasons so many choose to reside in DeWitt. The district has a very supportive community and are committed to partnering with parents/guardians to develop the whole child – intellectually, socially, emotionally and physically. The district is the largest employer in the community.

The district is 18.5 square miles and has six school buildings.
