

NORTH DICKINSON COUNTY SCHOOLS

The Board of Education of the North Dickinson County School District is in search of a new Superintendent/Principal.

The North Dickinson County School District is located in the heart of the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. The rural location offers a multitude of recreational activities for avid outdoor enthusiasts, as well as beginners. All four seasons offer activities including hiking, fishing, biking, horseback riding, golf, snowmobiling, boating, and skiing to name only a few. Thirty to forty-five minutes in any direction can offer fine dining and shopping. North Dickinson County Schools offer a safe, strong, rural educational environment with the opportunity to seek adventure and more urban amenities nearby.

North Dickinson County School District covers approximately 507 square miles of northern Dickinson County and the townships of Felch, Breen, West Branch, and Sagola. The school district serves students from kindergarten through the twelfth grade who receive instruction in one building. North Dickinson County School District offers healthy and robust academic and athletic programs including outstanding records and accomplishments in all educational areas. Points of Pride include:

- Well established Sinking Fund
- Valuable School Forest Land- 1K acres
- Highly Recognized Academic Growth K-8
- * Outstanding Athletic Records & Accomplishments
