

Saline Area Schools

The Board of Education for the Saline Area Schools is in search of a new superintendent.

Saline Area Schools is known for its academic excellence, innovative programs, and strong community support. The district offers a rigorous curriculum, diverse programs, and a focus on equity and inclusion, preparing students for success in college and beyond. The community actively supports the schools through volunteerism, fundraising, and events, fostering a sense of belonging and collective responsibility for student success.

The district comprises several schools, each providing unique educational opportunities. Highlights include Saline High School's strong academic and extracurricular programs, its nationally recognized athletics program, robust CTE programming, numerous STEM-focused opportunities, Saline Alternative High School's personalized approach, and award-winning programs like the Young Adult program and Early Childhood Special Education classroom. Saline Area Schools also prioritize professional growth and collaboration among educators, ensuring a culture of innovation and continuous improvement.

Saline is a charming small town located in Washtenaw County. Located closely to two proud education institutions in Eastern Michigan University and the University of Michigan, Saline is about 8 miles southwest of Ann Arbor and approximately 45 miles west of Detroit. Nestled along US-12 (Michigan Avenue), Saline offers a perfect mix of rural beauty and suburban convenience, making it an attractive destination for visitors seeking a blend of scenic landscapes, historical charm, and cultural events.
