

North Huron School District

The Board of Education for North Huron School District is in search of a new superintendent. This is only the preliminary posting; a detailed profile of the ideal candidate will be added at a later date.

The North Huron School District is located at the “tip” of Michigan’s thumb. It includes the communities of Kinde, Port Austin, and Port Hope and is situated on Saginaw Bay and Lake Huron. Tourism and agriculture are the main industries in the district.

The North Huron School District serves students from birth through grade 12. The district facilities have undergone recent renovations and all programs are housed in one building. This includes a wing for early childhood education in the elementary, K-5 elementary, and 6-12 secondary. With a history in agriculture, the district has an active ag classroom program and FFA organization which includes a working greenhouse, ag lab classroom building and outdoor classroom. The district’s most recent recognition is from the Mackinac Center for Public Policy. North Huron School received an “A” grade for elementary and middle school context and performance report card for the 2025 report period.
