

PEWAMO-WESTPHALIA COMMUNITY SCHOOLS

The Board of Education for Pewamo-Westphalia Community Schools is in search of a new superintendent. This is an outstanding opportunity to lead a first-class, rural school system with a long history of meaningful relationships in service to the community.

Pewamo-Westphalia Community Schools is in Clinton and Ionia Counties, approximately 15 minutes east of Ionia and 30 minutes northwest of Lansing. From the district it is a short drive to the I-96 corridor and the Portland exit. The district includes the communities of Pewamo, Matherton, and Westphalia. These small, close-knit communities support the school system and provide a value-based environment which is embedded in the district.

Pewamo-Westphalia is renowned for its success in academics, athletics, and fine arts for all students. The community embraces a high quality of life and is very supportive of its schools. In 2023-2024, U.S. News and World Reports named the high school on its list of BEST HIGH SCHOOLS, while the elementary received BEST ELEMENTARY PUBLIC SCHOOLS designation in 2024.
