

Bangor Township Schools

Bangor Township Schools serves students from early childhood through high school, providing a place where learners can explore their interests, build skills, and grow along the way. From strong core academics to career and technical education pathways, fine and performing arts, athletics, and supportive services, students have many opportunities to discover what inspires them and prepare for what comes next.

Located in Bay City, Michigan, near the shores of Lake Huron, Bangor Township Schools is part of a welcoming, family-centered community. The area offers a balance of community connection and access to regional opportunities, giving students a supportive environment in which to learn, participate, and thrive.
